Antonia M. Dumas is an associate at XPAN Law Group, a certified Women’s Business Enterprise (“WBE”) and Women Owned Small Business (“WOSB”). At XPAN, Antonia works with clients to create proactive, streamlined and global approaches to cybersecurity and data privacy. She performs audits, assessments and gap analysis of a client’s existing contractual and technological infrastructure. Domestically, she conducts cyber-regulatory compliance assessments, including HIPAA and state-specific regulations. She assists in the implementation of cyber best practices, including drafting cybersecurity policies and procedures. She also helps conduct international privacy compliance assessments under the European Union General Data Protection Regulation (“GDPR”).

Antonia has experience in a variety of different sectors through which she has gained an insight into potential cybersecurity and data privacy vulnerabilities. Additionally, she contributes a unique global perspective from living, studying and working abroad in Spain for several years.
