Jordan L. Fischer, Esquire is certified by the IAPP CIPP/US Certification

PHILADELPHIA January 30, 2020 -- XPAN Law Group, LLC is proud to announce that co-founder & managing partner, Jordan L. Fischer, Esq., has earned the ANSI-accredited Certified Information Privacy Professional/United States (CIPP/US) credential through the International Association of Privacy Professionals (IAPP). With the increasing emphasis on privacy in the United States, Jordan's deep knowledge of both international and US domestic privacy laws provides value to clients navigating the complex matrix of today's privacy regulations.

"I am very excited to add this additional certification to demonstrate my knowledge of U.S. privacy law, and its growing prominence in the global privacy conversations," explained Jordan. "Our clients navigate privacy laws across the globe on a daily basis, and at XPAN, we strive to stay ahead of the curve educating ourselves and preparing our clients."

The CIPP/US demonstrates a strong foundation in U.S. private-sector privacy laws and regulations and understanding of the legal requirements for the responsible transfer of sensitive personal data to/from the U.S., the EU and other jurisdictions. Jordan joins the ranks of professionals worldwide who currently hold one or more IAPP certifications.

About the International Association of Privacy Professionals

The International Association of Privacy Professionals (IAPP) is the largest and most comprehensive global information privacy community and resource. Founded in 2000, the IAPP is a not-for-profit organization that helps define, support and improve the privacy profession globally. The IAPP is the first organization to publicly establish standards in professional education and testing for privacy and data protection. IAPP privacy certification is internationally recognized as a reputable, independent program that professionals seek and employers demand. More information about the IAPP is available at www.iapp.org.
